I would highly recommend Pettit and Company.

I was originally referred to Tim Pettit. I found him to be straightforward and honest. He provided me a thorough assessment of my case and what I could expect for next steps.

My file was eventually transferred to Vanessa Marshall, a veteran lawyer in the firm. Similar to Tim, Vanessa provided me with an honest and clear assessment of the facts, what to expect as the case continued and possible outcomes.

Vanessa handled my case calmly and rationally. She was always well prepared dealing with opposing council. What I liked about her was her ability to provide me with a summary that I could easily understand.

In the end she did a fantastic job and was able to settle my case without having to go to trial. She went above and beyond at mediation and was able to put my mind to ease after 3 1/2 years of stress!

The firm was great to deal with and everyone was always quick to respond to telephone calls or any emails that needed
A response to.

Thank you again for the great work.
